Tired Robot

Belleruche

Well I don't want to try in vain if you made up your mind
I can't say that mine will change
We'll have to agree to disagree on certain circumstance
In this unfortunate situation we find ourselves in
By now it must be clear that I'm sorry I confuse matters now and then
I just can't stand the sight of you hurting, over hurting again and again.Some times I feel like I'm not worth a thing
Too sensitive I don't know how else to be
Feel close to you and that's where I'd like to stay
You make me feel that it's not a good thing
Not worth a thing, not worth a
Not worth a thing
Not worth a...
Chances are relief must prevail, are you not aching for some kind of reprieve
Or have you a heart grown so weary it fails you and you can not feel
Well I can assure you somehow sometimes this will be over eventually
Then you can sit back and question the hows and whens till your hearts content and you'll seeSome times I feel like I'm not worth a thing
Too sensitive I don't know how else to be
Feel close to you and that's where I'd like to stay
You make me feel that it's not a good thing
Not worth a thing, not worth a
Not worth a thing
Not worth a...And I thought you'd care to be friends as I'm not impressed by ultimatums
If I don't give in give you all you want you'll leave giving me the impression it will be permanently
So am I wrong to think am I right you'll do your best to reconcile
Am I wrong to think am I right you'll do your best to try
Am I wrong to think am I right the end is here now in sight
And am I wrong to think am I right one of our wishes will be denied.
Some times I feel like I'm not worth a thing
Too sensitive I don't know how else to be
Feel close to you and that's where I'd like to stay
You make me feel that it's not a good thing
Not worth a thing, not worth a
Not worth a thing
Not worth a...
