Return Home

Eli Kazah

We are brought into this world
And we know nothing
We have fallen from the sky
Into the arms of our mother
And we find our way through life
Sometimes feeling lonely
Looking for which way to go
Looking looking for our home
Return home
Return home
LetÂ´s return home
And one day we fall asleep
Very deep very deep
Little angels come to us
Take us back into the sky
Return home
Return home
Return home
Return home
How I wish I was a child
Little little dancer
Feeling tender
Feeling warm in the arms of my lover
Feeling tender
Feeling warm in the arms of my lover
Feeling tight, feeling light, feeling tender
Feeling warm (in the arms of my lover)
Deeply deeply deeply sleep
Come the angels from the sky
Take us back to the sky
Take us back home
Return home
LetÂ´s return home
Return home
LetÂ´s return home
Feeling tight in the night in the arms of my lover
Feeling tight in the night in the arms of my lover
The arms of my lover
