

If I Wrote You

Dar Williams

I never thought you were the letter writing type
So now I see the words you chose the way you write
So I started to write back about the trees in the snow
And I saw a bird, couldn't see what it was but I thought you'd know
 You always surprised me
 And if I wrote you
 If I wrote you
 You would know me
No, no
 And when the spring came and flooded all the streams
 It's like how you got the night you told me all you dreams
 And when the barn roof sagged after an icy bout
It's like how you got when you knew the truth was the only way out
 But not the only way, oh no
 And if I wrote you
 If I wrote you
 If you would know me
 And you would not write me again
No, no
 We drew our arms around the bastard sons
 We never would drink to the chosen ones
Well, you know the way I left was not the way I planned
 But I thought the world needed love and a steady hand
 So I'm steady now, yeah
 And now I'm so happy
 I had to tell you
 And I love you
 And you will not write me again
You will not write me again, no, no
 You will not write me again
