

A New Beginning

Girish And The Chronicles

What could have we done
There was no way to over run
Can someone tell me whatâ€™s going on?
Itâ€™s just so hard to overcome
Never thought this day would come
But it was all written and done
I guess we just did too many wrongs
Now itâ€™s just about the time we learn
Oh! Mother please forgive us
Just give us another chance
Tell me that the tears I've shed are the only ones
Now thereâ€™s no more to cry and run
Iâ€™m crying for my brothers and sisters
Coz they had no part to play
Then why oh! Why mother
I guess you just have your own ways
We never thought this day would come
But it was all written and done
I guess we just did too many wrongs
Now itâ€™s just about the time we learn
Oh! Mother please forgive us
Just give us another chance
Tell me that the tears I've shed are the only ones
Now thereâ€™s no more to cry and run
Can you see the rising sun
Fill up the sky with a beautiful morn
May this light put a smile on your face
And fill your heart with true happiness
A new beginning
A new beginning
A new beginning yeah!
A new beginning
A new beginning
A new beginning
