Alone

Toby Lightman

Everybody needs someone to cling to
Everybody needs someone to call their own
No one wants a love that you can see through
No one wants to spend their whole life alone

Someday I know he will surely find me
Someday I will have a love to call my own
Then I'll have someone to lay beside me
Then I'll never have to spend my nights alone

Alone, isn't where I want to be
I've got so much to give, we're not supposed
To live alone
Isn't how I think of me, I'm counting down the Days til I can put that word away

The world is full of people who are searching
And every heart is trying to find a home
Just like everything I think that I'm deserving
Of a love that takes away the word alone

And I'm waiting in line
And I'll wait like a bird on a wire
And I wonder if that day will ever come
When love walks in to finally take me higher
Then I'll know my search for love is done
