

Imperfect Is the New Perfect

Caitlin Crosby

Compare the way my body looks through the magazines,
Don't know why everybody's buying into the scene.
So i'm gonna drive down the boulevard
Not caring who has the fastest car,
Tone down the makeup, and the noise,
Cause whats inside will bring the boys.

I don't wanna look like you because
You're too perfect
You're too perfect.
And i don't wanna fill your shoes cause
Its not worth it
Its not worth it
Don't fill the mold, i am real
Too colorful to conceal.
Imperfect is the new perfect
Imperfect is the new perfect

If skin and bones is the secret to all your happiness
Then pop your pills cause the money is never gonna last

So save the plastic for the toys,
Come out your shell just make a noise

I'm gonna run
I'm gonna live
I'm gonna smile and not fit in

I'm gonna dance
I'm gonna strut
I'll shake my curves
And not give a fuck

I don't wanna look like you because
Your too perfect
Your too perfect.
And i don't wanna fill your shoes cause its
Not worth it its not worth it
Don't fit the mold, i am real.
Too colorful to conceal.

Imperfect is the new perfect
Imperfect is the new perfect

Just dry your eyes your beautiful
I understand its logical
Cause these images are everywhere
They're make believe so don't compare
I don't wanna compare

Were every shape and size
You know we're
Just perfect
Were just perfect
We love our hips our thighs
Because they're
Just perfect
Just perfect

Don't fit the mold, i am real.
To colorful to conceal.
Imperfect is the new perfect
Imperfect is the new perfect

I don't wanna look like you because
Your too perfect
Your too perfect.
And i don't wanna fill your shoes because its
Not worth it its not worth it
Don't fit the mold, i am real
Too colorful to conceal.
Imperfect is the new perfect
Imperfect is the new perfect

Imperfect is the new perfect
Imperfect is the new perfect
Imperfect is the new perfect
