

Auntie Nellie (Stereo)

Status Quo

Sitting here with Auntie Nelly, she is so alone
Talking idly, she's in no hurry, I wish I could go
But how could I just say Goodbye, there's no-one who she knows
No I can't leave my Auntie Nellie, no
No I can't leave my Auntie Nellie, no
She's getting old and weary, oh it's such a shame
'Cause she's been good to everyone but now they don't know her name
No I can't leave my Auntie Nellie, no
Sitting here with Auntie Nelly, she is so alone
Talking idly, she's in no hurry, I wish I could go
But how could I just say Goodbye, there's no-one who she knows
No I can't leave my Auntie Nellie, no
She's so alone, she'd die if I should go
No I can't leave my Auntie Nellie, no
She's so alone...
