

Damn! You Feel Good

Jedd Hughes

The sun went down before I knew it, we were lost in the covers

Foolin' around if there was any way for you to be better lover

Well, I don't know how

From your fingertips to your every kiss, sets me on fire Girl you feel good, girl you feel right

Damn! You feel good tonight Well the sun came up and the world was brighter than I'd ever seen it

Must be love 'cause the day was gone before we even knew it

The beginning of another night, holdin' you tight

I can't let go Girl you feel good, girl you feel right

Damn! You feel good tonight It's your fingertips, it's your kiss, sets me on fire Oh girl you feel good, girl you feel right

Damn! You feel good tonight

Oh, damn! You feel good, damn! You feel right

Oh girl, you feel good tonight
