

Unfinished (Holmdel 7-14-04)

Barenaked Ladies

I left a tip, but it was never a donation
I took a trip, but it was never a vacation
I took a seat, but I refuse to take a number
And so, defeated, I proceeded unencumbered
I took her hand, but it was not in matrimony
I told my side, but it was never testimony
I turned and ran after ignoring my Miranda
I hid, she sought and caught me under the veranda
I'd say an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of attention spanSpanning all the ages
Turning all the pages
The history of me is incomplete
Everything is Un-
Everything is Unfin-
Everything is Unfinished
I played along, but it was not for recreation
I left my home, but it was not evacuation
I made a pact that I would finish what I started
I admit the fact I was distracted and outsmarted
I'd say an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of attention spanEverything is Un-
Everything is Unfin-
Everything is Unfinished

Songwriters

HEARN, KEVIN NEIL/ROBERTSON, ED/PAGE, STEVEN Published by Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>