One For Sorrow

Insomnium

I am the last
The one who holds on past
Clinging on something we used to haveI am the last
The one who chose this path
To walk among the world of shadowsAlways one for sorrow
Never one for love
Two souls destined to failure
Right from the startIt was always one for sorrow
Never one for love
Two souls set for departure
Before the nightfallAnd here I stand
Devoid of faith, bereft of hope
Unable to break the walls around meAnd here I stand
Shell of a man from past
Condemned to world of resentmentAlways one for sorrow
Never one for love
Two souls destined to failure
Right from the startIt was always one for sorrow
Never one for love
Two souls set for departure
Before the nightfallIt took two to summon the thunder
One to bring down the rain
Two to torn all asunder
One to suffer the painTwo to crush dreams and wonders
One to lose everything
All once beautiful and sacred
Nothing but in vainAlways one for sorrow
Never one for love
Two souls destined to failure
Right from the startIt was always one for sorrow
Never one for love
Two souls set for departure
Before the nightfall
