

Too Much

Guy Clark

Too much workin'll make your back ache
Too much trouble'll bring you a heartbreak
Too much gravy'll make you fat
Too much rain'll ruin your hat Too much coffee'll race your heart tick
Too much road'll make you homesick
Too much money'll make you lazy
Too much whiskey'll drive you crazy Too much just ain't enough
Too much ain't near enough
Breathin' 'bout the only thing
I do too much of ain't enough Too much limo'll stretch your budget
Too much diet'll make you fudge it
Too much fluff'll make you show it
Too much pressure'll make you blow it Too much onion'll make you weepy
Too much preachin'll make you sleepy
Too much Mexican food'll fill you
Too much honky tonk'll kill you Too much just ain't enough
Too much ain't near enough
Breathin' 'bout the only thing
I do too much of ain't enough now Too much hot rod'll get you a ticket
Too much dog'll make you kick it
Too much hidin' out'll find you
Too much you-know-what'll blind you Too much wrist watch'll make you hurry
Too much waitin'll make you worry
Too much smokin'll give you cancer
Too much cocaine ain't the answer Too much just ain't enough
Too much ain't near enough
Breathin' 'bout the only thing
I do too much of ain't enough now Too much walkin'll wear your shoes out
Too much juice'll blow your fuse out
Too much time'll fill your hands up
Too much speed'll wire the band up Too much chip'll bruise your shoulder
Too much birthday'll make you older
Too much map has always lost me
Too much fun has always cost me Too much just ain't enough
Too much ain't near enough
Breathin' 'bout the only thing
I do too much of ain't enough Too much, too much
[Incomprehensible]
Breathin' 'bout the only thing

I do too much of ain't enough, alright
