

Dirty Water

Throwing Muses

I'm the lady
Who locks the door
I'm the lady
Who turns out the lightHey you, look at the dirty water
Look at him
Look at the dirty water and swimI'm not looking for anything
And you don't know
I'm not digging for anything but this holeHey you, look at the dirty water
Look at him
Look at the dirty water and swimSit at your hole
You can't afford to go
Catch what you can
You can't afford to know this man
Hey you, aren't you the lady?Some man, you look fine
Don't touch me
There's history on your handsHey you, aren't I the lady?
Look at the dirty water
Look at the dirty water
