Uncle Sam Blues

Hot Tuna

Got my questionnaire baby
You know I'm headed off for war
I got my questionnaire baby
You know I'm headed off for war
Well, now I'm gonna do some fightin'
Well, no one knows what forWell, Uncle Sam ain't no woman
You know he sure can take your man
Said, "Uncle Sam ain't no woman"
You know he sure can take your man
Well, there's forty thousand guys in the service list
Doin' somethin', somewhere, they just don't understandWell, I'm gonna do some fightin'
Of that I can be sure
Said, "I'm gonna do some fightin"
Of that I can be sure
Well, now I wanna kill somebody
Won't have to break no kind of lawI got my questionnaire baby
You know I'm headed off for war
I got my questionnaire baby
You know I'm headed off for war
Well, now I want to kill somebody
Won't have to break no kind of law
