

Afraid

Lana Del Rey

I'm America's sweetheart tryna get away,
You make it hard to leave but it's easier for me to stay
Boy I'm so afraid
And I've had it up to here, with the fighting, baby we're not
Fooling anyone these days
I don't wanna stray, but boy I'm so afraid
But it's not love that keeps me here
And it's not what you want to here
So I'm going back to Santa Monica, New York to LA
Never coming back boy no matter what you do or say
'cause I'm so afraid
And I, had it up to here with the panic and the fear
There's nothing in your heart, thought that I could make you change
I'm so afraid
But it's not love that keeps me here
We were just teenagers, when we fell in love
Driving in your fast car, looking at the stars above
But it was not enough
You should never come between a woman
And her dreamin', I meant I never knew his place
There's no easy way, to come back from where you came

But it's not love that keeps me here
And it's not what you want to here
So baby now I'm going back to Santa Monica, New York to LA
Never coming back boy no matter what you do or say
'cause I'm so afraid
And I, had it up to here with the panic and the fear
There's nothing in your heart, boy I thought that I could make you change
I'm so afraid
And it's not love, it's just the fear
Boy you've put down for all these years
But I'm leaving now
I'm going, back to Santa Monica, New York to LA
Never coming back boy no matter what you do or say
I am done being afraid
Well I've, had it up to here with the panic and the fear
There's nothing in your heart, thought that I could make you change
I'm so afraid

Oh it's not love that keeps me here
It's not love that keeps me here
I am done being afraid
I am done being afraid
Oh-oh-oh
