He's Watching

Peter Cincotti

Within the dark in the sky above, I see a sign
Within the distant clouds, I see a friend of mine
And then as the shadows disappear
He smiles at me and I know
He's watchingHe lives within the Heaven and He lives within my mind
All I can feel is the love He left behind
Then He will whisper in my ear
He tells me, I should know
He's watchingAnd now I'm grown
I'm strengthened by the tears I've never shown
I'm strengthened by the years I've never known
Once afraid of facing them aloneAnd every day I always have some place to go
I've traveled very far from the life I used to know
But still when I close my eyes and dream
I feel Him near and I know
He's watchingAnd now I'm grown
I'm strengthened by the tears I've never shown
I'm strengthened by the years I've never known
Once afraid of facing them aloneAnd every day I always have some place to go
I've traveled very far from the life I used to know
But still when I close my eyes and dream
I feel Him near and I know
He's watchingHe's watching
He's watching
He's watching
He's watching

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/