

Strong Enough

Christopher Jak

Trying to figure out
Just where your life is goin'
Can you see the picture
 In the purple sky?
 Silently you're walkin'
But where are you headin'?
Questions terrorize, ah, yeah
Space inside your mind, ah, yeah
Are you strong enough for love?
Are you strong enough for peace?
Are you strong enough to die?
 Tell me why
 I'm strong enough for you
Are you strong enough for me?
'Cause down, down in the city
 Love ain't always pretty
They try to take your soul and mind
 But you won't let them
 Never wear your destiny
 Outside your smile
 Always talk in riddles
So you keep them guessing
 Never criticize, ah, yeah
Keep an open mind, ah, yeah
Are you strong enough for love?
Are you strong enough for peace?
Are you strong enough to die?
 Tell me why
 I'm strong enough for you
Are you strong enough for me?
'Cause down, down in the city
 Love ain't always pretty
They're holding out their hands
 Begging for some time
 Can you spare a shilling
 Can you spare a life?
 You try to give them food
 But they just refuse you
 Deep down inside, ah, yeah

You know you've tried
Are you strong enough for love?
Are you strong enough for peace?
Are you strong enough to die?
Tell me why
I'm strong enough for you
Are you strong enough for me?
'Cause down, down in the city
Love ain't always pretty
'Cause are you strong enough?
Strong enough for me?
Strong enough
Strong enough to see
Strong enough
Strong enough to be
'Cause down, down in the city, yeah
Love ain't always pretty
Strong enough for love?
Are you strong enough for peace?
Strong enough to die?
Tell me why
Strong enough for me
Oh, I'm strong enough for you
'Cause down, down in the city, yeah
Love ain't always pretty, no
You're strong enough for me
I'm strong enough for you
You're strong enough to see
That down, down in the city
Yeah yeah, yeah yeah, yeah yeah
Love ain't so pretty
