

Goodbye

Turin Brakes

Well I think its time to be heading back now back into the black now you can chalk it up to a false start stepped on a roller coaster lives gone loop the loop around my heartI enjoyed my visit don't think for one single minute that I'll regret even the stuff I forget now Its time to let it go check my pulses your eyes roll It may seem absurd but it naturally occursI was just alert to the time under the dirt(goodbye) Were not afraid to die (goodbye) Were not afraid to die
Just the stuff between the start and the other side(goodbye) Were not afraid to die (goodbye) Were not afraid to die
Catch us in-between the stars and the skyAll the junk in space old TV shows and Radio waves they become your friends beam you home lost and aloneWhen you move away some of you will stay to drift round these hallways waiting to return the sun will burn maybe life will find meStar dust designed me(goodbye) Were not afraid to die (goodbye) Were not afraid to die
Just the stuff between the start and the other side(goodbye) Were not afraid to die
(goodbye) Were not afraid to die
Catch us in-between the stars and the sky
