

Thinking Too Much

Meiko

I think I'm thinking too much
Is this what happens when you're falling in love?

I know I should let it be
This isn't how I am usually

But I'm losing sleep
Going over possibilities
I'm scared that I'm not what you need

I think I'm thinking too much
So long I've been waiting

For something to turn out right
Is it so wrong to be this easy?

I never thought that I could be without a fight
Ooh, I'm in love with you
What am I to do?

I think I'm thinking too much
Is this what happens when you're falling in love?

I know I should let it be
This isn't how I am usually

But I'm losing sleep
Going over possibilities
I'm scared that I'm not what you need

I think I'm thinking too much
It's so good to be this happy

I should be dreaming every night
But instead, I toss and turn in my bed

I'm restless every night
Ooh, I'm in love with you
What am I to do?

I think I'm thinking too much
Is this what happens when you're falling in love?

I know I should let it be
This isn't how I am usually

But I'm losing sleep
Going over possibilities
I'm scared that I'm not what you need

I think I'm thinking too much
