

Lil' Nigga Ain't Mine

Jaheim

All my real niggas, Ja in this muthafucker
Ghetto slick niggas putting it down
No, lil' nigga ain't mine
What you think a muthafucker blind
Looks just like Ginuwine
I know you been tappin' that spine
Or could it be that nigga doin' time
That got your stupid ass in a bind
Back in 99 when everybody thought you were so fine
The nigga ain't mine
Yo' knock it off bub, you're killing me, he couldn't be mine
He too yellow and your skin darker than mine
Grade of hair too good, both of ours is rough
He ain't got my eyes, they ain't brown enough
You playin' baby shower stunts while I'm countin' the months
So all I'm thinkin' is why me and what the fuck you want
You better call that pretty boy up and harass him
Ja told me that you were knockin' boots wit him
I ain't your baby father, ain't even close to that
Now what I look like, forget it don't answer that
I'm probably a fool you know what you're probably right
Like I'm probably his pops and I'm probably white
Get on before you get jumped on an such
That lil' nigga ain't what you stoned or what
(NO!)
Thanks a lot, Ja, Ja ain't you're baby dad, you need to slow down, love
'Cause you're moving too fast you know? Tell 'em Ja
No, lil' nigga ain't mine
What you think a muthafucker blind
Looks just like Ginuwine
I know you been tappin' that spine
Or could it be that nigga doin' time
That got your stupid ass in a bind
Back in '99 when everybody thought you were so fine
The nigga ain't mine
Ha! Ain't nothing, no! A nigga ain't with that shit
Girl you've got some kind of nerve, all I done for you
Ain't got no words for you, just pack your shit and go
Find your baby father, 'cause I baby fathe'm not him, I baby no

What you think I don't know your dealo better go find that nigga then girl
(I'mma tell you one time)

Lil' man got that same head display the same eyelashes
The same DNA kid the match ain't clashin'

Asking 'bout somebody up north you killin' me soft
You wanted it rough, said your shit broke off

Meet Ginuwine one time he tried to beat me in the head with that
Meet me in the bed with that he triggered these drawers

Since I let you dip in and check the birth certificate
Put a clip in it, uh huh, nigga that's yours
No lil' nigga, ain't mine

What you think a muthafucker blind
Looks just like Ginuwine

I know you been tappin' that spine
Or could it be that nigga doin' time
That got your stupid ass in a bind

Back in 99' when everybody thought you were so fine
The nigga ain't mine

Dude told me how these hoes be
Straight OC, tryin' set Ja up now she know me
(Hoe)

End up like Caruve with no code Ds
(Huh?)

It's the truth when you raised her for OZs
Homie let me roar for you its the oral it's awful
(Yo' two)

Now she tryin' say that kids mine it's gonna cost you
(Uh huh uh huh)

Never forced you to name him Clinton
Can't respect you you hustle life ain't a ghetto
(Come on)

Like that night I was in here and love was love
(What, uh huh)

Room full of lies, freak on the high note
(Freak on the high note, fuck you)

Now she probably broke hate to kill your high hopes
(I've got heaps of cash)

Ask for dope when tryin' get live hoes
Skams ain't for slow besides i ride rough you just ain't a pro
(So what?)

It take pain to grown no name to know
(Ha)

Shit that lil' nigga ain't mine what you sayin' though?
What you saying Ja?
No lil' nigga ain't mine

(He ain't mine)
What you think a muthafucker blind
(Must be i got stupid on my head)
 Looks just like Ginuwine
I know you been tappin' that spine
 (Tap tap tap)
Or could it be that nigga doin' time
That got that stupid ass in the bind
 (That brother right there, who?)
Back in 99' when everybody thought you were so fine
 (Oh, back in '99)
 The nigga ain't mine
 No lil' nigga ain't mine
What you think a muthafucker blind
 (Tell me)
 Looks just like Ginuwine
 (Lady)
I know you been tappin' that spine
Or could it be that nigga doin' time
 That got your stupid ass in a bind
Back in 99' when everybody thought you were so fine
 (Thought you were so fine)
 The nigga ain't mine
 (No!)
