

Cry Your Heart Out

Olly Murs

Verse 1

Hey, I'm back again now it's sunny in my mind,
And I don't miss the rain used to feel it all the time,
Put away my troubles I left them all behind
Now every time I look up, clear blue sky's
Now here you come again like a cloud in my view blocking all my light like only you can do
You try to say sorry girl, drop it drop it, you really need to stop it, I wanna change the topic now.

Pre-Chorus

Cause every time we end up in the same silly situation yeah and did you really think you could walk and I'd be here waiting?

Chorus

Your turn to cry your heart out, let me stop before you start out
Don't need your explanations no,
cause I don't really wanna know, about the way your feeling now
Cause you're the one who called time out so go, and you can cry your heart out

Verse 2

Oh yeah, go head and keep em poring from your eyes crocodile tears they will never fool the wise
I'm wise to your game girl but now your out of lives
Love maybe blind but I'm deaf to your kind

Pre-Chorus

Now here you come again like a cloud in my view blocking all of my light like only you can do

You try and say sorry girl, drop it drop it, you really need to stop it, I wanna change the topic now.

Cause every time we end up in the same silly situation
Yeah and did you really think you could walk and I'd be here waiting? Ohhh

Chorus

Your turn to cry your heart out
Let me stop before you start out
Don't need you explanations no
Cause i don't really wanna know about the way your feeling now
Cause you're the one who called time out
So go and you can cry your heart out

Verse 3

Cry, cry, cry

It's time for you to, cause I've already done enough to put out the fire you left behind, yeah

Why? Why? Why?
Everything you ever did has come back on you
Look at me now, didn't I warn you, so it's your turn
Chorus

Your turn to cry your heart out, let me stop before you start out
Don't need your explanations no-no
Cause I don't really wanna know about the way your feeling now
Cause you're the one who called time out
So go and you can cry your heart out
Your turn to cry your heart out let me stop before you start out
Don't need your explanations no
Cause I don't really wanna know about the way your feeling now
Cause you're the one who called time out
So go and you can cry your heart out
