

One Last Time (Break Up Sex)

Montell Jordan

[Intro]
Come here
Come here
So what we gon' do?
You down
I know
Let's do this, ok?
Let's do this
Don't say no, don't say no, don't say no Here we are again, in this bed again
Making love again, afraid to let it end
The sex seems better when we've had an argument
But you're not leaving and I'm not leaving
So let's do what we came to do
Even though last night 1 - We said it was over
But we're here tonight
We're just getting started
And it's possible we'll break up again in the morning
So turn it up, press rewind
Let's get it on one last time So we kissed and said goodnight
Then a little time went by
You found somebody new, well, I'm seeing someone too
She can't take the place of you
Our arguments and fights
'cause breaking up and making up
Has made some unforgettable nights Repeat 1
Repeat 1 Lying in my arms, the calm after the storm
When the tears fall
The music can drown out the sound of you crying
It's so hard to be just friends
It'll probably hurt again
So let's just pretend
We're still in love Last night Repeat 1
Repeat 1 I just might hurt you again
