If I Don't Have You

Lou Gramm

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Another lonely day
Watching the blues turn to gray
I never felt so much sorrow
Don't know if I can face tomorrow
Don't know where this love lies
Need to know but that's all right
Feel lost and alone and last
I need to be neededNot if I don't have you
There's nothing for me tomorrow
Not if I don't have you
Loneliness turns to sorrowAnother lonely day
Watching the blues turn to gray
I never felt so much sorrow
Don't know if I can face tomorrow
Don't let this love die
Like the sun at last daylight
You can't leave love alone
How long would it lastNot if I don't have you
There's nothing for me tomorrow
Not if I don't have you
Loneliness turns to sorrowAnother lonely day
