Red Dress

Lucy Hale

(feat. Joe Nichols)

[Lucy]
If I close my eyes, and Imagine you are here.
It'll last for awhile, before you disappear.
So I close my eyes, cause the only thing I fear
Is waking up one day, forgetting you were ever here

[Joe]
Darling, It's you I remember with your Red Dress on,
Dancing in the moonlight till the break of dawn.
It's you I remember dancing with your Red Dress on

[Lucy]
And Baby it's you I remember when I hear that song,
Singin' out the chorus till your voice was gone
It's you I remember every time I hear that song

[Joe]
Not a day goes by,without thinking that I see,
your face in the crowd, turning away from me
So the days go by, like a recurring dream
Where every night ends with the same old memory

[Lucy]
And Baby it's you I remember when I hear that song,
Singin' out the chorus till your voice was gone
It's you I remember every time I hear that song

[Joe]
Darling, It's you I remember with your Red Dress on,
Dancing in the moonlight till the break of dawn.
It's you I remember dancing with your Red Dress on Dancing with your Red Dress on

I don't know the game were playing,
You and I were on to something
How did we fall apart,without asking ourselves why?

[Lucy]

Lookin' back I can't help thinkin'
That some where I had just stopped runnin'
I would have held you close, and never said goodbye.

[Joe]
Darling, It's you I remember with your Red Dress on,
Dancing in the moonlight till the break of dawn.
It's you I remember dancing with your Red Dress on

[Lucy]
And Baby it's you I remember when I hear that song,
Singin' out the chorus till your voice was gone
It's you I remember every time I hear that song

[Joe]
Darling, It's you I remember with your Red Dress on,
Dancing in the moonlight till the break of dawn.
It's you I remember dancing with your Red Dress on

[Lucy]
And Baby it's you I remember when I hear that song,
Singin' out the chorus till your voice was gone
It's you I remember every time I hear that song

[Joe]
Dancing with your red dress on

[Lucy]
Woah

[Joe]
Dancing with your red dress on.
