

I'm Leaving

Johnny Nash

Who is that on the phone that you were talking so sweetly to...
Well, who is that on the phone that you were talking, talking so discreetly to...
Must have been another guy
No, no girl, don't tell me no lie
Just get my hat...(get my hat ...) gimme my coat...(gimme my coat...) I'm leaving...
(Get my hat 'n gimme my coat...)Well, I've heard people say that you been seen a-running 'round
And I've heard people say that you were planning to put me down
Baby, that's all right
No, no girl I won't put up a fight
Just get my hat...(get my hat ...) gimme my coat...(gimme my coat...) I'm leaving...
(Get my hat 'n gimme my coat...)I have known for a long, long time that you were no good from the start
I have known for a long, long time that some day you'll end up breaking my heartWell, this is it, it's all over girl, I guess I'll find somebody new Well, this is it, it's all over mama, I've had just 'bout enough of you
Just get my hat...(get my hat ...) gimme my coat...(gimme my coat...) I'm leaving...
(Get my hat 'n gimme my coat...)
