Stay Awhile

Edie Brickell & New Bohemians

I'm touching your face and i
Can't get very far
You travel a million miles
Always in the stars
And crossing the clouds
A fading moon
Whispered "it's goodbye"
But as it starts to die
Stay awhile
Show your love
Child amoung the stars
Just stay awhile
Lay with me
Tell me who you are
I've never believed in much
What can I be worth ?
I'm always a shooting star
Falling down to earth
I prayed in my heart
You'd never know

Feelings wouldn't show
But now before you go
Stay awhile
Show your love
Child amoung the stars
Just stay awhile
Lay with me
Tell me who you are
And crossing the clouds
A fading moon
Whispers "it's goodbye"
But as it starts to die
Stay awhile
Show your love
Child amoung the stars
Just stay awhile
Lay with me
Show me who you are

Just stay awhile
