

Whatever You Want

Trey Songz

You can whatever you want
You can have You can have You can have it
You can have whatever you want
You can have You can have You can have it
Sasha Gomez:
Baby you can have whatever you want
(Bom Bom)
Crazy booty and I shake it real stupid
(Dum Dum)
You know you wanna let me back it up
(Dont front)
You can have whatever you want
Through the nights and the days see I only want a girl that can give me (whatever you want)
Work it out I wanna play can I hear you say my name
Baby give me (Whatever you want)
All you got to do it say the word and it don't matter what you heard Promise to give you what he don't
and You can have You can have (Whatever you want)
Time is of the essences I'm so bless to have your presences
I promise not to fall short of anything you have accepted
I'll exceed that tell me what you want I'm just dieing to get the feedback
Your body is the truth I wanna lie you down (Beleedat)
My futures in eyes can you see dat no place in the world as fly as wherever we at (yea)
Need a woman wit open mind go inside and open mine
Show me what she find then in time if we coincide
I know my bride the warmth to my colder side her heads to my shoulder side
Even if I never cry any issue bigger petty kno she keeps some tissue ready
Some road come and go only if you ready for the long haul baby this aint going steady
Don't you be alone girl
Won't you take my arm girl
I don't mean know harm girl
You da one I want girl

Where I wanna be is where ever you are wit me
Pick a special place and we can go there just you and me and nobody we know there be my audience give you a show girl

we can share moments so rare (yea)
If you come go with me I can sho guarantee that its gon' be (Whatever you want)
Would you like that (You can hold me to that now)
Would you like that (Whatever you want)
What ever you need
I can have it here you know whether its far or near you kno Nothings too small (whats you favorite kind of cereal)
Girl its whatever you want
Whatever you want
Through the nights and the days see I only want a
girl that can give me (whatever you want)
Work it out I wanna play can I hear you say my name
Baby give me (Whatever you want)
All you got to do it say the word and it don't matter what you heard Promise to give you what he don't
and You can have You can have (Whatever you want)

You know you wanna let me back it up
(Dont front)
You can have whatever you want
You can (whatever you want)
You can have You can have You can have it
You can have (whatever you want)
You can have You can have You can have it
