

You Kill Me

Peter Frampton

Hey baby, give me a break
I seem so frantic, it might be too late
I'm trying, trying to hard
Trying to see what's behind the facade Turn around, you never hear what I say, oh oh
Hey baby, how do I get thru'?
I'm trying every angle with you
Don't tell me, you call me unfair All your lying is like a knife in the back
Don't deny, you never hear what I say
Whoa, oh, oh You kill me with your lies
You kill me, don't you cry
You kill me, whoa, oh
You kill me, ooh, oh, oh
You kill me Yeah, hey, baby give me a chance
Won't you take me for one last dance
Hey, baby I'll do you right
I'll take you dancing way into the night Don't deny, you never hear what I say
You never hear, never look, never see
What I say You kill me with your lies
You kill me, don't deny
You kill me, ooh, oh, oh
You kill me, woo, woo
Ooh, ooh Yeah, you kill me with your lies
You kill me, don't you cry
You kill me, whoa
You kill me, ooh ohh
You kill me
