Love Show

Skye

Sit down, give me your hand
I'm gonna tell you the future
I see you living happily
With somebody who really suits ya
Someone like meStand still, breath in
Are you listening?You don't know
Somebody's aching keeping it all in
Somebody won't let go of his heart
But the truth is, it's painless
Letting your love showBreak down, give me some time
I don't want the fear to confuse ya
Right now, it's so wrong
But maybe it's all in the future
With someone like youStand still, breath in
Are you listening?You don't know
Somebody's aching keeping it all in
Somebody won't let go of his heart
But the truth is, it's painless
Letting your love show
Letting your love showMaybe truth, maybe lies
Made me want you
Maybe dumb, maybe wise
I don't knowSomebody's aching keeping it all in
Somebody won't let go of his heart
But the truth is, it's painless
Letting your love showYou don't know
Somebody's hurting holding it all in
Somebody can't let go of his heart
But the truth is, it's painless
Letting your love showLetting your love show
Love show, oh
Love show
Letting your love show
