The Runners

The Naked and Famous

High just like the runners
We survived under crystal skies
Silver tides, whipping winds and shore lines
Grows just like a grape vine
We align weather-beaten spines
Settle scores, we just want to be adoredI am still clinging to These signs that I hope to find
A heart no home can hold
The hole we left behind
I feel your body right here
It takes on any shape
This place that made me run
And gave me every reason toStay
In the rain
In the rain
Stay
In the rain
In the rainCaught in the reminder
Will I sleep? Will I beg for peace?
Leave the reckless hearts (leave the reckless hearts)
And find the little spark (and find the little spark)
To lead you through the dark
When you fall apartMy ears are ringing to these
Summers not quite defined
A heart no home can hold
The hole we left behind
I feel your body right here
It takes on any shape
This place that made me run
And gave me every reason toStay
In the rain
In the rain
Stay
In the rain
In the rainMy ears are ringing to these
Summers not quite defined
A heart no home can hold
The hole we left behind
I feel your body right here

It takes on any shape
This place that made me run
And gave me every reason toStay
In the rain
In the rain
Stay
In the rain
In the rain
