

Pretty Is

Lyfe Jennings

When the lights go out, and the clothes go on
All the money in the air and all them bad bitches gone.
She walked out that door,
A little slower than before
Every nigga in the parking lot, tryna take her home
'Cause she knows
This ain' t what she came here for
She knows
She just tryna stack some doe
She knows
They be thinkin she's a hoe
Girl get your money,
Don't let em turn it into something ugly
There's no need to hurry! Pretty is what pretty does,
You'll always be pretty, because
You fall but get up,
Pretty is what pretty does
You'll always be pretty, because You're still full of love. He want a lap dance
He want a chance,
He wanna sell her a dream, but she ain't buying
She wants real love,
Somebody who will never judge her,
Somebody who don't wanna just f--- her.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>