

December (Only Living Witness)

Shadows Fall

(In the) Darkened shroud of morning

Simplified in face and stature

Blessing in the storming

Sweetness of a subtle feature

Alone and safe inside

Without worry, with out knowing who's

    Been cast aside

Twisted down, escape to restI will writhe in my DecemberThese crafted understandings

    Smother citadel defending

They'll miss a motive is cast together

    (The) comfort, effort in the end

    Without worry

    Who's been kept alive

Without knowingI will writhe in my December
