14 Arms

Crash Kings

You can't say you'll start a revolution Just because you're six feet into your head And I won't lie, I'm singing evolution But fourteen arms will execute the point that I stressBut there won't be anything Compared to what the world has shown us We're nothing but a speck Let's give them what they least expectIf the snake gets the rabbit in the end Think twice, then pretend to reverse the roles And tell me what you think is the best Should you take it like a monkey or a man? Well, God only knowsIt's alright, lay your cards on the table And throw your voice into the ring of the fight And I won't lie, I'm willing and able But fourteen arms will execute the point Yeah, will execute the pointBut there won't be anything Compared to what the world has shown us We're nothing but a speck Let's give them what they least expectIf the snake gets the rabbit in the end Think twice, then pretend to reverse the roles And tell me what you think is the best Should you take it like a monkey or a man? Well, God only knows
