Open Up Your Eyes

Crossfade

You can hear clearly now
The ringing in my head
Do you believe me now?
Or do you still think I'm just trying to bring you down?
To wreck this to the ground
Your thinking always so well
Tell me what will I do nowCan you hear me now!Can I breathe alone?
Can I sleep alone?
Can I be alone?
We all die aloneI can see clearly how
A life gets thorn away
So easy to let them down
When no one knows just what you're thinking
It's hard to laugh when they smile when you're not around
When no one cares you're here, you don't want to be foundI don't want to be found!I won't breathe alone
I won't sleep alone
I won't be alone
I won't die aloneSo everybody just sing along and make the anthem known
Know that none of us are alone
Everyone of us should feel alive
So open up your eyes!Open up your eyes!We won't breathe alone
We won't sleep alone
We won't be alone
We won't die aloneSo open up your eyes!
Open up your eyes!
