Rearview Mirror Romance

Cheap Trick

Romance in a rearview mirror
I'm movin', I'm feelin' like I'm rollin' on my own
(What could be better?)
Then somewhere drivin' my car, the radio turn it on
(What could be better?)
I check around in traffic from my point of view
(What could be better?)
Then I saw her in the mirror
Maybe the same thing has happened to you
It was romance in a rearview mirror
Romance after just one look
Romance in a rearview mirror
I didn't know her but it didn't matter
Romance in a rearview mirror
Just by chance I still can't believe
That it's true love reflected sight
It's a rearview mirror romance tonight
She pulled up close, first glance I saw her eyes
(What could be better?)
I couldn't stop starin' at her she didn't realize
(What could be better?)
Then looked up in the mirror, smile on her face
(What could be better?)
There she goes, heaven knows
Maybe the same thing has happened to you
It was romance in a rearview mirror
Romance after just one look
Romance in a rearview mirror
I didn't know her but it didn't matter

Romance in a rearview mirror
Just by chance I still can't believe
That it's true love reflected sight
It's a rearview mirror romance tonight
There she goes, heaven knows
I wanna meet her all alone
Romance in a rearview mirror
Romance in a rearview mirror
Romance after just one look

Romance in a rearview mirror
I didn't know her but it didn't matter
Romance in a rearview mirror
Just by chance I still can't believe
That it's true love reflected sight
It's a rearview mirror romance tonight
Romance in a rearview mirror
Romance after just one look
Romance in a rearview mirror
I didn't know her but it didn't matter
Romance in a rearview mirror
Just by chance I still can't believe
That it's true love reflected sight
It's a rearview mirror romance tonight
It was a romance in a rearview mirror
Romance after just one look
Romance in a rearview mirror
I didn't know her but it didn't matter
Romance in a rearview mirror
