

Headstones and the Walking Dead

DevilDriver

Chorus

All of the pain
and all of the games
I hope you won't feel the same
I gave you the good
You gave me the bad
I'll give you the hurt today You're all headstones headstones now
I'm the one they left the walking dead

Verse 1:

Remember the house that rock-and-roll built before people lived that house it took its toll for some of you it was hard-felt maybe hard-felt
but for me I sold my soul have fun now back in the real world all curled up no one to hear your cries and unheard prayers I'm the one you made me pirate, poet, king of despair

(Chorus)

Verse 3:

And they shall know no good or peace nor shall their suffering ever cease until they humbly come to me and beg for mercy on their knees which I may grant if I should pleasebecause I want it's the worst, yet the bet for my vengeance
for the rest
vendetta

Chorus

giving the devil his due his due is you
