

Insect Kin (Jack Dangers, Drum And Bees Mix)

Bush

Iron lung I know you well
Deal with you like a bad spell
See the trail moon burns
Red Stripe and Vicadin
You were the only one
You're the censor
You'll never people me
I'm not defenseless
In the afternoon as the light dims
Build a life out of, of all this Semtex
You're the brightest one
You were the center
The perfect opposite of, of what you asked for
It's not just one way
A negative factor
With all of these wasps out
I'd better take cover
Better take cover
Copper tongue beam me up
Lonely without my impediments
Start to save what we used to steal
Walking on gelatin
I never noticed you
You were the brightest one
You were the wide of me
Just like the English sun
You caught the light again
In a perfect way
The biggest threat of all
Is in the alleyway
You're the demon seed
You're the factor
Feel better with a little bit of plaster
It's not just one way
A negative factor
With all of these wasps out
Better take cover
Better take cover
I'd better take cover
