

I Know How To Love You Now (feat. Charles Esten)

Nashville Cast

My broken promises, broke your heart.
Time and time again
I let everything fall apart.
I was such a fool back then.
But you loved me once I know.
So many sorry's ago. So here I am and I just pray,
That you will listen long enough to hear me when I say.
This brand new man won't let you down.
If you let me show you, I know how to love you now. There was a time when I held your hand.
I would have died to keep you safe.
That's why it kills me that I'm the man
Put those tears on your face.
I don't blame you for moving on.
Baby, all of my chances are gone. Here I am and I just pray.
That you will listen long enough to hear me when I say. This brand new man, won't let you down.
If you let me show you, I know how to love you now. I see that look in your eye.
You're scared
And I understand why.
So am I. But here I am.
And this brand new man, won't let you down.
If you let me show, I know how to love you now. Girl, let me show you. I know how to love you now.
