

Let Me Go (feat. Pelle Carlberg)

Mocca

Your voice is just so tender and you ask for a sweet surrender, I know you're a pretender, do you mind Dear I don't need it. Your hypnotic compassion always grabs my attention, those lines are persuasions just give it a rest. Perhaps you know my biggest weakness,

(what are you saying?)

to accept your sweet politeness,

(I didn't hear you)

and obey your words of kindness,

(are you complaining)

won't you let me go,

(or complementing?) Let me go 2x (no no), Are you listening so please just let me go (or perhaps I will).

Let me go 2x (or maybe no/ or maybe yes), Are you listening so please just let me go because you drive me insane so please just hear what I say, I beg you Honey, won't you let me go. You're sure I asked for a sweet surrender? 'cause I think you are so tender, I'm a great pretender, and of course Dear, you sure need it. I sure know your biggest weakness,

(what are you saying?)

You'll accept my sweet politeness,

(I didn't hear you)

and obey my words of kindness,

(are you complaining)

I won't let you go,

(or complementing?) Let me go 2x (no no), Are you listening so please just let me go (or perhaps I will).

Let me go 2x (or maybe no/ or maybe yes), Are you listening so please just let me go because you drive me insane so please just hear what I say, I beg you Honey, won't you let me go. I know you twist things around on the tip of your tongue, I beg you Honey, won't you Let Me Go!
