A Journey Into Darkness

Six Feet Under

Im not the only one whos been
Thinking the way Ive been
Things got to change, things got to change
If they dont well all be deadWeve got to watch and listen
To those things we arent told
Our lives seem dictated
By those who we dont know
Im telling you, Im telling you
Theres a cold wind coming soonBreak free
Weve go to break free
Weve go to break free
Weve go to break free, yeahOr else your life is ruined
Or else your life is ruined
Or else your life is ruined
Or else your life is ruinedBreak free from the one that binds you
Break free from the dark
Break free from the one that confines you
Break free from the darkIm not the only one whos been
Thinking the way Ive been
Things got to change, things got to change
If they dont well all be dead, break free
