

Goodbye

Venture

Yesterday, you told me
Things that you cannot explain
About when you came home
And had that look on your face

I found you, the window
Showed me things that cannot lie
Without me, a stranger
Was clearly seen through my eyes

When youâ€™re broken down
I can hear you calling out
But when youâ€™re not around
I can hear these words from your mouth
Believe me, I need you
To heal this hell that Iâ€™ve been through
Deceive me
You fed me lies
Goodbye
Goodbye

Tomorrow Iâ€™ll leave you
And never turn around now
Iâ€™ll never be there to
Hold you when you might fall down
I know you, I see through
The lies you threw back my way
Without me, youâ€™ll wither
The wind blows your life around

When youâ€™re broken down
I can hear you calling out
But when youâ€™re not around
I can hear these words from your mouth
Believe me, I need you
To heal this hell that Iâ€™ve been through
Deceive me
You fed me lies
Always waiting seems so frustrating

The answers you gave to me were lies

But when youâ€™re broken down
I can hear you calling out
When youâ€™re not around
I can hear these words from your mouth
Believe me, I need you
To heal this hell that Iâ€™ve been through
Deceive me
You fed me lies
Goodbye
Goodbye
