

Leap Of Faith

Sanctus Real

This too shall pass, oh, but it always comes back
And it's knocking upon your door
You say, "How did you find me here?"
'Cause I've been running for years" Now you're back in the same place
And you've been here before
Stuck in a maze trying to find an open door
Pray for the strength and take a leap of faith You fail in your mind long before you ever try
Why do you believe those lies
You love to drown your fears
But you've been drowning for years in tears Back in the same place
And you've been here before
Stuck in a maze trying to find an open door
Pray for the strength and take a leap of faith So what are you waiting for?
'Cause there is a Savior waiting to save you
What are you drowning for? Back in the same place
And you've been here before
Stuck in a maze trying to find an open door
Pray for the strength and take a leap of faith
