Revelation

The Wedding

They take off their coats and they start to fill the rows
Scene is all laid out, it's what we always dreamed about'Cause you and me have stood the test of time
And proved that we, we will make it out alright
Today is when faith will turn to sightThe preacher takes his place, all eyes watching as I wait
The doors open wide and I can't believe my eyes'Cause you and me have stood the test of time
And proved that we, we will make it out alright
Today is when faith will turn to sightFunny thing is it doesn't matter much
What the world could try and throw at us
'Cause they could never touch usYou and me have stood the test of time
And proved that we will make it out alright
'Cause you and me have stood the test of time
And proved that we, we will make it out alright
Today is when faith will turn to sight
