

Forgiven

Joey Tempest

starring at the dashboard light dont know my speed and I play the music far to loud I get lost but I dont care thats how I feel its been a while since weve stopped trying am I still holding out for the day

we can be
forgiven all the wicked games weve played

I dont know the state Im in or where Ive been these chemicals are wearing thin the way I feel about her now dont know for sure did I leave so shed want me more am I still holding out for the day
