

Brother, My Brother

Blessid Union Of Souls

Brother, my brother, tell me what are fighting for
We've got to end this war, we should love one another
Oh, can't we just pretend, this war never began
We can try, brother, my brother, yeah We face each other from different sides
The anger burns can't remember why
It's kind of crazy to cause so much pain
Our foolish pride makes us hate this way We watch our world fall apart
Tell me what good is winning
When you lose your heart Brother, my brother, tell me what are fighting for
Isn't life worth so much more? We should love one another
Oh, can't we just pretend, this war never began
Tell me why, brother, my brother Yes
We can try
Brother my brother
Yes Let's take a moment and look deep inside
And say we'll learn to give love a try
When matters differ as we seem to be
There's so much more to me than what you see You don't have to be this way
Think about the consequences
Then turn around and walk away Brother, my brother, tell me what are fighting for
Isn't life worth so much more, we should love one another
Oh, can't we just pretend, this war never began
Tell me why, brother, my brother, yeah Tell me why, brother, my brother
Brother, my brother
Brother, my brother
Brother, my brother
