

Simple Science (Todd Osborn Instrumental Remix)

Zero 7

It's not nothing that we
Nothing that fate can hurt
It not time to be free
Oh, what would be made a heart
Oh, a summer's day, we fall apart
Perfect fucking day to lose it all
Like the summer's day, we miss sunshine
I give in to you every time()
This should be simple science but
You know I like it too much (hey!)
Should be simple science but
You know I I love you too much?
And it should be simple science but
You know I love you too much
It should be simple science

Oh, let me think, multiply
You want to hear the truth
But I fill lies
Kiss the night good-bye
I'm your tonight
I've fallen to you every time()
This should be simple science but
You know I like it too much (hey!)
Should be simple science but
You know I I love you too much?
And it should be simple science but
You know I love you too much
It should be simple science

(Interlude)

Should be simple science
Should be simple science
Should be simple science
Should be simple science
Should be simple science
Should be simple science
