

Lens of You

Stef Lang

Lens Of You (Lyrics) I'm awake and dreaming
While you lie there sleeping
You're right next to me
You feel like you're worlds away
It's a silent bleeding
No Signs of healing
No words that could change this no love that could take my pain Looking through this lens of you I can't see myself the way that I want to
And it's cruel I don't make sense to you
When we're locked up in prison with different point of view so looking through oo looking through
oo looking through
This Lens of You In the dark street light Shattered glass still shines
It could cut you deep when it broke apart inside Looking through this lens of you
I can't see myself the way that I want to
When we're locked up in prison with different point of view so looking through oo looking through
oo looking through
This Lens of You
