

The Healer

KT Tunstall

Count one, count two, see what you wanna see Count 3, count 4, it'll start to morph
Count 5, count 6, there's a tangible difference
And I don't need to say any more, cos you feel it (you feel it) So I'll take my pride and I'll throw it on the fire Shed my clothes off until I'm just bones
And I'll ask myself, the question over and over Do I love myself enough that I can love, anybody else? Anybody else? Somebody else? Particles and molecules and (???) and I begin to disperse
Your medicine is everything I need, you're the healer Show me worlds, never could imagine Left their memory of who I am
And every decision that I ever made Grows and undergoes a transformation, like a crystal in a cave
Like a crystal in a cave, she's a crystal in a cave
