Blue World

The Moody Blues

Heart and soul took control
Took control of me
Paid my dues, spread the news
Hands across the seaPut me down, turned me round
Turned me 'round to see
Marble halls, open doors
Someone found the keyAnd it's only what you do
That keeps coming back on you
And it's only what you say
That can give yourself awayUnderground sight and sound
Human symphony
Heard the voice, had no choice
Needed to be freeFly me high, touch the sky
Left the earth below
Heard the line, saw the sign
Knew which way to go'Cos it's easier to try
Than to prove it can't be done
And it's easier to stay
Than to turn around and runIt's a blue world
It takes somebody to help somebody
Oh, it's a blue world
It's a new worldIt needs somebody to love somebody
Oh, it's a blue worldHeart and soul took control
Took control of me
Paid my dues, spread the news
Hands across the seaPut me down, turned me round
Turned me round to see
Marble halls, open doors
Someone found the keyAnd it's only what you do
That keeps coming back on you
And it's only what you say
That can give yourself away'Cos it's easier to try
Than to prove it can't be done
And it's easier to stay
Than to turn around and runIt's a blue world
It takes somebody to help somebody
Oh, it's a blue world
It's a new worldIt needs somebody to love somebody
Oh, it's a blue world

It's a blue world
It takes somebody to help somebodyOh, it's a blue world
It's a new world
It needs somebody to love somebody
Oh, it's a blue world

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/