

Long Road

The Whiskey Saints

I'm going crazy
And you mess with my head
Better off losing than better off dead
I can't find a reason
And I don't want to rhyme
This all belongs to me, you say it's not mine 'Cause I've got a song to sing
But it doesn't mean anything
I'll take the long road home as long as it takes me There's no time for patience
When I'm seeing red
Sooner or later you'll regret what you said
I'm bound by this torture
And I'm burning in sin
Living's the only way to get to the end And I've got a song to sing
But it doesn't mean anything
I'll take the long road home as long as it takes me
