Man For All Season

Billy Idol

Time on my side, are you ready to learn?
I said, baby, are you ready to burn?
Oh, burning desire, I'm a soul on fire
And baby, it's higher and higherDon't get in my way, no way
Well, you'd be a fool, baby, well, that's true, baby
It's the time for my season right now
Well, is it true, baby? Oh yeah, babyI'm a man for the season
Yes, I love you for a reasonTime on my side, now you understand
Oh baby, my time is at hand
Oh, it gets higher and higher, it's a divine given power
Those love licking lips, take me higher and higherDon't get in my time, no way
You'd be a fool now, baby, such a fool now, baby
Can't change my way, what I say
You'd be a fool, baby, such a fool now, babyI'm a man for the season
Oh, I love you for a reason
Oh, I love you for a reason
I'm a man for the seasonYeah, I got all the time in the world, honey
You understand?Theres time on my side and now you understand?
There baby, are you ready to burn?
Baby, are you ready to burn?It's getting higher and higher
Come on, burn, baby, come on, burn, baby
Oh, oh baby, oh baby, oh baby
